Leanne Lewis

Leanne Lewis is one of Box of Crayons' master facilitators, delivering its award-winning coaching skills programs to organizations across North America. A coach for more than 10 years, she has delighted clients with her open and engaging facilitation style. Her experience with clients spans many industries, including financial services, retail, manufacturing, telecom and healthcare. Leanne also has over 25 years of experience in sales, sales management and management education.

Leanne has an adventurous (some might say competitive) side to her. Although she has a fear of heights, Leanne has both bungee-jumped and sky-dived. She enjoys recreational cycling trips and is working on increasing the number of countries she has cycled in — currently six and counting. She is behind in the number of countries she has skied in — only four — but she's looking forward to increasing that number in the years ahead. Did I mention she was competitive?

Leanne is a proud mom to three awesome children and one active dog. She spends her free time enjoying the beauty of Vancouver and western Canada. Leanne is a graduate of the Ivey Business School at the University of Western Ontario.
