

PROGRAM LEADER INTRODUCTION

Michelle Benning

The word on the street is that Michelle has the ability to present challenging subjects in a simple and fun way. She recognizes that no single approach to learning is right for everyone.

Leveraging adult learning principles, Michelle successfully facilitates high-impact training on a wide range of topics for groups and individuals with diverse learning styles, in both the public and private sectors. She has a proven track record of improving performance. With Michelle, no one is left behind.

As a corporate globetrotter, Michelle has expertise in sales, human resources, operations and L&D, which has enabled her to work with organizations throughout the United States, Canada, South America, Europe and Asia.

Michelle is a Certified Professional Coach through the International Coach Academy. Also certified by FranklinCovey and the Center for Leadership Studies, she was a contributing author to the book Secrets of Superstar Speakers, by Lilly Walters, and is very active in her community. Michelle lives in Houston, Texas, with her two-legged family members, Amos and Braylen, and her four-legged family member, Rascal the Poodle.

A wizard from the world of corporate learning and development, Michelle Benning has a way of imparting things about herself without seeming to brag. She has the experience and credentials to build a lengthy list but keeps it short and smart to prevent her audiences from falling asleep!
